PLAYHOUSE ON PARK HONORED WITH CHAMBER'S NOAH WEBSTER AWARD

West Hartford, CT –The West Hartford Chamber of Commerce will recognize Playhouse on Park for their extraordinary dedication to keeping live theatre in West Hartford. Mayor Scott Slifka will present the Noah Webster award during the Chamber's Annual Meeting on Tuesday, June 8th.

Since opening its doors last year, Playhouse on Park has offered the community an array of entertainment including Broadway theatre, dance productions, and comedy. Located in the landmark, A.C. Petersen Farms building on Park Road, the Playhouse has overcome extraordinary circumstances under the leadership of Executive Director, Tracy Flater.

"Park Road is a vibrant community of shops, restaurants, and entertainment. The work that Tracy and Artistic Directors, Sean Harris, and Darlene Zoller have accomplished since taking over the venue has been tremendous, all on a volunteer basis. The Chamber is proud to present the Noah Webster Award to Playhouse on Park for its dedication to the West Hartford community," said Chamber President, Marjorie E. Luke.

The Chamber's Annual Meeting & Awards will be held on Tuesday June 8th from 4:30 PM – 6:00 PM in the Hoffman Auditorium at Saint Joseph College's Bruyette Athenaeum, 1678 Asylum Avenue, West Hartford. It will be followed by a cocktail reception by Fleming's Prime Steakhouse & Wine Bar. Reservations are $25 for Chamber Members; $30 for guests.
