

The Blue Elephant Trail Celebrates Grand Opening with Chamber of Commerce and Town Officials

The West Hartford Chamber of Commerce and Town Officials recently welcomed The Blue Elephant Trail to 7 South Main Street. The ceremony was led by Mayor Scott Slifka and Chamber Chairmen, Gary Jones. Siblings Soden Tek and Sohors Tek-Tan grew up in West Hartford. After opening a successful restaurant in Avon, they set their sights on their hometown of West Hartford.

Diners can expect authentic Thai cuisine with some surprise dishes that offer a twist on traditional. A large elephant statue, the Thai cultural symbol of prosperity, welcomes you at the door. The Blue Elephant Trail is open for lunch and offers a superior happy hour. Sohors and Soden treat all of their customers like family whether they are seasoned in Thai cuisine or trying it for the first time.

###